

Ethics Bowl is a national competition where teams of students critically analyze a wide range of current moral problems and present their best arguments advocating their unique perspectives.

ETHICS BOWL

PHIL 343

In need of 3 units of upper division credit?

Interested in exploring complex, contemporary issues?

Passionate about your ideas and ready to share them in a small, project-based class setting?

Join today!

This competition focuses on ethical issues including:

- ◇ Criminal justice, war, and terrorism
- ◇ Social and political policy and theory
- ◇ Media and Popular Culture
- ◇ Business, government, and economics
- ◇ International and domestic law
- ◇ Medical ethics and policy

All majors welcome!

Zero-cost course materials

For information to enroll, contact
Coach Shelley Dedman
sdedman@sdsu.edu